

R/W Plan Development Training Class

As listed in the INDOT Consultant Prequalification Manual 8/10/2005

The following course is being offered to satisfy requirements as set out in section

11.0 RIGHT OF WAY PLAN DEVELOPMENT

11.1 Right of Way Plan Development

Requirements:

The right of way plan designer shall meet the following requirements:

3. Successful completion of INDOT's Right of Way Plan Development Training Course

This Course may also be used in Sections 12.0 RIGHT OF WAY ACQUISITION SERVICES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The R/W Plan Development training Class has the following objectives:

- 1) How R/W plans are developed.
- 2) What information is required on R/W plans.
- 3) What is the purpose of Parcel numbering
- 4) How are Parcels numbered.
- 5) Special property interests
- 6) What must be cleared
- 7) What easements must be shown on the R/W plans
- 8) Legal descriptions of new R/W takings and R/W parcel plats
- 9) Existing R/W reports, Abstracting reports, Location Control Route Survey reports and Design R/E plan reports
- 10) Question and answer session (bring questions)

WHEN

(One class)

March 27, 2008 (Thursday) 9am to noon

WHERE

Greenfield District Office – East Main Conference Room

ATTENDANCE

Please Email John Wright in Roadway Services at JWright@indot.in.gov to register for class. Limit 40 people.

Class will be taught by:

Ron Raney

INDOT Greenfield District Production

Real Estate Services Manager